In this section you are required to express your interest in apprenticeship, i.e. a kind of "learning agreement" allowing young people aged up to 29 to access the labor market, working in a company and, in the meantime, achieving a PhD.

CSSE - Apprenticeship

The "Apprenticeship for Higher Education" is an initiative put forth by the Region of Tuscany to promote synergies between university students and companies. Within this framework, the IMT School may have the possibility of creating a "learning agreement" in which the student would work part time at the participating company, while completing his/her PhD, and the company would receive tax reductions for employing a student. These agreements can be stipulated for students up to the age of 29.

We ask you to express your interest in such type of agreement below, should such an opportunity arise during your time at the IMT School. Your answer in no way influences – neither positively or negatively – your overall evaluation.

For more information on the "Apprenticeship for Higher Education", please see <https://www.imtlucca.it/en/info-studenti/apprenticeships>
